Mary P. Harding

A Personal Journey With Art

Thursday, September 15 | 10:30 AM
627 US Route 1, York, Maine

(in the Eldredge Building)

Mary P. Harding has been a curator of contemporary art exhibitions at Old York's George Marshall Store Gallery, a property of the Museums of Old York, for the last 20 years. She will talk about how she goes about finding, choosing and exhibiting work by many of the region's established and rising artists. Her presentation will be illustrated by slides.

Mary P. Harding is a 1975 graduate of Brown University, and has all her life been passionate about art. After graduation, she was an exhibit designer for Strawberry Banke Museum in Portsmouth, NH, and for the Margaret Woodbury Strong Museum in Rochester, New York. She has also served as director of the Barn Gallery of Ogunquit, Me, for four years.

Mary has been an independent art consultant, specializing in regional contemporary art since 1996.

Don't miss this opportunity to learn about a most accomplished and talented, local art curator's work and journey.
